

Bristol General Intercessions 4-28

For the Church: that we may love one another as the Lord commanded us to do, so that we remain on the true vine... we pray to the Lord.

That those in public office may work together for the common good, like interconnected branches on a vine... we pray to the Lord.

That the unborn, the terminally ill, and those condemned to death be clothed in the same garment of the right to life... we pray to the Lord.

For the safety of all those whose lives are in danger due to war, gun violence, or domestic violence, and for a conversion of heart of all those who would contemplate violence... we pray to the Lord.

For increased vocations to the diverse ministries which give life in abundance to the Church... we pray to the Lord.

For police, firefighters, health workers and all who keep us safe... we pray to the Lord.

That like branches on a vine we may work together as a community of faith to bear fruit for the benefit of all... we pray to the Lord.

For the sick and dying of the parish... we pray to the Lord.

For the soul of Joann Speigel, for whom this Mass is being offered... we pray to the Lord.

(Only if needed) For all who have gone home to the Lord this week, especially _____... we pray to the Lord.

And... for all the prayers and intercessions we hold in the silence of our hearts (pause)... we pray to the Lord.

Please remain at the Ambo until the celebrant has completed the prayer.
