

Lector Notes for September 8

Good afternoon / morning and welcome to our celebration of the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. If we have any guests or visitors, a special welcome to you.

We ask that you take a moment to silence your cell phones before Mass begins.

The second collection this weekend is being taken up to help defray the cost of fuel and energy for the parish. Please place your contributions in one of the wooden boxes at the church entrance after Mass.

Now... please stand as we offer one another a sign of peace.
