

Plymouth General Intercessions for Nov. 21

For the Church: that we may become people of truth through listening to God's Word, sharing in the Eucharist, and giving witness to it in our decisions and actions...we pray to the Lord.

For leaders of government and judges: that they may recognize that their authority comes from God and that it is intended for the service of the human community...we pray to the Lord.

For all believers: that we may come to a deep realization that Christ walks with us each day and has a vision for tomorrow filled with compassion and hope...we pray to the Lord.

For the safety of all travelers: that God will protect all who are traveling this week and help them to have renewing visits with family and friends...we pray to the Lord.

For the sick and dying of the parish:

(4:00 PM) and for Doris Welch and those enshrined in our Book of Remembrance, whom we remember in a special way at this liturgy... we pray to the Lord.

(8:00 AM) and for Dorothy Lengel and those enshrined in our Book of Remembrance, whom we remember in a special way at this liturgy... we pray to the lord.

(11:00 AM) and for Sara Balch and those enshrined in our Book of Remembrance, whom we remember in a special way at this liturgy... we pray to the lord.

(Only if needed) For all who have gone home to the Lord this week, especially _____...we pray to the Lord.

And... for all the prayers and intercessions we hold in the silence of our hearts (pause)...we pray to the Lord.

Please remain at the Ambo until the celebrant has completed the prayer.
